Dear MUHAMMAD YASIN IBNE MATIN:

Why We Are Writing You

On February 16, 2022, you filed Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). We are writing to inform you that we need more information from you to make a decision on your case. Please read this letter carefully and follow all of the instructions below.

What You Need to Do

You must provide the following information in order for us to make a final decision on your case.

- The record establishes that you are the Principal Applicant of an Employment-Based (EB) Form I-485. In order to continue processing of your case, you must submit a properly completed and signed Supplement J, Confirmation of Bona Fide Job Offer or Request for Job Portability Under INA Section 204(j), showing that the offer of intended permanent employment as stated in the Form I-140 immigrant petition continues to exist or that you intend to port to a new offer of employment in the same or similar occupational classification as the job specified in the underlying Form I-140.

When You Need To Do It

You must either mail the requested information to the address shown below or scan and upload your response using your USCIS online account (if applicable). You must submit the requested information by July 25, 2022.

You must submit all of the requested evidence at one time. If you submit only part of the evidence, we will make a decision based on the evidence that you submit. We will not consider any evidence that is submitted after the due date. If you do not respond to this request by the date shown above, we will deny your case.

If you submit a document in any language other than English, you must provide: (1) a copy of the original document in its foreign language; and (2) a full English translation of the document. The translator must certify that the translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language to English.

We strongly recommend you keep a copy of all documents that you submit to USCIS in response to this request.
