Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker

REQUEST FOR EVIDENCE

IMPORTANT: THIS NOTICE CONTAINS YOUR UNIQUE NUMBER. THE ORIGINAL NOTICE MUST BE SUBMITTED WITH THE REQUESTED EVIDENCE.

You are receiving this notice because U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) requires additional evidence to process your form. Please provide the evidence requested below. Include duplicate copies if you are requesting consular notification.

Your response must be received in this office by July 11, 2022.

Please note that you have been allotted the maximum period allowed for responding to a Request for Evidence (RFE). The time period for responding cannot be extended. Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR) § 103.2(b)(8)(iv). Because many immigration benefits are time sensitive, you are encouraged to respond to this request as early as possible, but no later than the deadline provided above. If you do not respond to this notice within the allotted time, your case may be denied. The regulations do not provide for an extension of time to submit the requested evidence.

You must submit all requested evidence at the same time. If you submit only some of the requested evidence, USCIS will consider your response a request for a decision on the record. 8 CFR § 103.2(b)(11).

If you submit a document in any language other than English, the document must be accompanied by a full and complete English translation. The translator must certify that the translation is accurate and he or she is competent to translate from that language to English. If you submit a foreign language translation in response to this request for evidence, you must also include a copy of the foreign language document.

Processing of your Form I-129 will resume upon receipt of your response. If you have not heard from USCIS within 60 days of responding, you may contact the USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283. If you are hearing impaired, please call the USCIS Contact Center TDD at 1-800-767-1833.

On March 1, 2022, your organization, SIX CONTINENTS HOTELS INC INTERCON (petitioner or petitioning organization), filed a Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), seeking to classify JEREMY SNIJDERS (beneficiary) as a nonimmigrant intracompany transferee (L-1A).

Documentation submitted with your petition indicates that your organization provides international hotel/restaurant. Your organization seeks to employ the beneficiary as a Director of Engineering from July 11, 2022 to July 10, 2024.

The L-1 classification may be granted to an individual who, within three years preceding the time of his or her application for admission into the United States:

- Has been employed abroad continuously for one year by a firm, corporation, or other legal entity or parent, branch, affiliate, or subsidiary;
- Seeks to enter the United States temporarily to render services to a branch of the same employer, or a parent, affiliate, or subsidiary; and
- Will work in a capacity that is managerial or executive, or involves specialized knowledge.

To process your petition and determine if your organization and the beneficiary are eligible, additional information is required. This request provides suggested evidence that your organization may submit to satisfy each of the eligibility criteria described below. Your organization may:

- Submit one, some, or all of these items.
- Submit none of the suggested items and instead submit other evidence to satisfy the request.
- Explain how the evidence in the record already establishes eligibility.
- Request a decision based on the record.

Please note that, as the petitioner, your organization is responsible for providing evidence which shows your organization and the beneficiary meet all requirements and are eligible for the requested benefit at the time your organization filed the petition by a preponderance of the evidence. Please do not include copies of documentation previously submitted with your response.

Blanket Petition

USCIS acknowledges that you are requesting to extend your petition. The beneficiary has been employed in L-1 status since July 11, 2019. The beneficiary was admitted to the United States pursuant to a blanket L-1 petition receipt (SRC0315251069) filed by Six Continents Hotels, Inc. (InterContinental Hotels Group). When adjudicating a subsequent petition or application involving the same parties, USCIS will consider, but not defer to, previous eligibility determinations made by other U.S. government agencies. In this instant petition, eligibility determination will be made based on the evidence of record. Despite any prior approvals, the petitioner bears the burden to establish eligibility for each petition on its own merits, and an immigration benefit cannot be granted when the petitioner fails to meet the standard of proof, including a filing for extension. See INA § 291.

USCIS checks all petitions filed for this classification in its Validation Instrument for Business Enterprises (VIBE) system. VIBE uses commercially available data to validate basic information about organizations petitioning to employ foreign workers. For more information about this program, please visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov/VIBE.

L-1A Beneficiary Requirements

To qualify a beneficiary for L-1A classification, your organization must show that he or she:

- Will be employed in a managerial or executive position in the United States;
- Has prior education, training, and employment that qualifies him or her to perform the intended services in the United States; and
- Has at least one continuous year of full-time employment abroad with a qualifying organization:
  - Within the three years before application for admission to the United States; and
  - In a position that was managerial or executive, or involves specialized knowledge.

One Continuous Year of Employment Abroad: Your organization must show that the beneficiary has at least one continuous year of full-time employment abroad with a qualifying organization or organizations within the three years prior to his or her application for admission to the United States.

To satisfy this requirement, your organization submitted:

- Employment verification letter.

The evidence your organization submitted is insufficient. In support of the beneficiary's employment abroad you submitted an employment verification letter. However, the letter alone does not establish that the beneficiary has at least one (1) continuous year of full-time employment abroad. In response to the Request for Evidence (RFE) please provide documentation, such as copies of the beneficiary's earning statements or other evidence that sufficiently demonstrates that the beneficiary has been employed abroad for at least one (1) continuous year of full-time employment abroad. As such, the evidence of record is insufficient to establish that the beneficiary has been employed abroad by a qualifying organization for one (1) continuous year of full-time employment within the three (3) years preceding the application for admission into the United States. Your organization may still submit evidence to satisfy this requirement.

Evidence may include, but is not limited to:

- Copies of the beneficiary's pay records.
- Copies of the beneficiary's personnel records.
- Copies of the beneficiary's training records.
- A letter from the beneficiary's supervisor(s) describing the beneficiary's experience with the foreign entity.
- A detailed letter from the foreign entity's (or entities') Human Resource Department(s), signed by an authorized representative of the foreign entity (or entities) that discusses the beneficiary's work history there.

Managerial, Executive, or Specialized Knowledge Position Abroad: The beneficiary must have at least one continuous year, within the three years prior to his or her application for admission to the United States, of full-time employment with a qualifying foreign organization. The foreign position must have been primarily managerial or executive in nature, or involved specialized knowledge. You may not combine some of the requirements for one of these position types with some of those of another. Hybrid positions that meet some, but not all of the criteria required to establish separately that the person worked primarily in a managerial, executive or specialized knowledge position, will not establish eligibility.

To satisfy this requirement, your organization submitted:

- Counsel's cover letter; your letter of support, dated February 3, 2022; organizational chart.

The evidence your organization submitted is insufficient. You provided a description of the beneficiary's duties. However, the submitted description of the beneficiary's position abroad describes generalized duties and responsibilities. In addition, description of the beneficiary's duties does not identify the percentage of time the beneficiary spent performing the duties. Therefore, USCIS cannot determine whether the beneficiary primarily performed managerial duties or routine operational tasks. Consequently, without additional details and documentation concerning the beneficiary's managerial duties at the foreign entity, including how, and at what frequency the stated duties were performed, USCIS cannot determine that the beneficiary was employed abroad in a primarily managerial capacity.

In addition, you indicate that the beneficiary was employed abroad in a managerial capacity as a "Chief Engineer." In support of the petition you submitted an organizational chart to illustrate the beneficiary's position and the number and types of employees. The organizational chart you submitted suggest that the beneficiary oversaw ten (10) subordinate employees. However, you did not provide a description of duties for the beneficiary's subordinate staff and describe how the subordinate staff supported the beneficiary's managerial position and relieved him from primarily performing the day-to-day, non-qualifying duties of the business. As such, the evidence you submitted does not establish that the beneficiary supervised and controlled the work of other supervisory, professional, or managerial employees.

Furthermore, you suggest that the beneficiary "supervised and controlled the work of several layers of reports and had the authority to hire and fire and recommend other personnel actions." However, you did not submit documentary evidence to support your assertions. As such, the evidence you submitted does not establish that the beneficiary had the authority to hire and fire or recommend personnel actions. In addition, the evidence you submitted does not establish that the beneficiary managed the organization, department, subdivision, function, or component of the organization he or she oversaw.

As such, you have not established that the foreign business had an organizational structure sufficient to elevate the beneficiary to a position that was primarily managerial. Without more detailed information accompanied by credible probative material documentation that demonstrates and supports your claims of managerial capacity, USCIS cannot determine that the beneficiary was employed abroad in a primarily managerial capacity. Your organization may still submit evidence to satisfy this requirement.

Evidence may include, but is not limited to:

- Copies of the beneficiary's training, pay, or other personnel records.
- An organizational chart or diagram, showing the foreign entity's organizational structure and staffing levels. Clearly identify the beneficiary's position in the chart.
- A list of all employees in the beneficiary's immediate division, department, or team, by name, job title, summary of duties, education level, and salary.

Foreign position primarily managerial:

- A letter from an authorized representative of the foreign entity describing the beneficiary's managerial position abroad. The letter should describe the beneficiary's typical managerial duties, and the percentage of time spent on each. In addition, the letter should address:
  - How the beneficiary managed the organization, department, subdivision, function, or component of the organization he or she oversaw.
  - How the beneficiary supervised and controlled the work of other supervisory, professional, or managerial employees, or managed an essential function, department, or subdivision of the organization. A "professional" is an individual who is a member of the professions, which includes but is not limited to architects, engineers, lawyers,

- physicians, surgeons, and teachers in elementary or secondary schools, colleges, academies, or seminaries. If the beneficiary was a first-line supervisor, submit evidence showing the supervised employees were professionals.
- Whether the beneficiary had the authority to hire and fire, or recommended hiring and firing as well as other personnel actions (such as promotion and leave authorization), if other employees were directly supervised (or if no employees were directly supervised, how the beneficiary functioned at a senior level within the organizational hierarchy or with respect to the managed function).
  - How the beneficiary made decisions on daily operations of the activity or function under his or her authority.
  - If the beneficiary managed a function, explain and provide documentary evidence to establish that the specific function is critical or essential to the foreign entity and that the beneficiary was in a high-level position within the foreign entity, or in a position directly related to a function necessary for the provision of an end product or service of the company. Your explanation should identify the function with specificity and describe the critical or essential nature of the function and how it relates to the provision of such end product or service. In addition, provide a detailed description of the percentage of time the beneficiary spent performing such duties to demonstrate that the beneficiary primarily managed the function rather than primarily performed the non-qualifying day-to-day duties of the function.
  - If the beneficiary supervised other supervisory, managerial, or professional employees, you may, but are not required to, submit copies of performance appraisals or reviews conducted by the beneficiary for any such subordinate employees or any evidence that demonstrates the beneficiary has sufficient managerial authority over subordinate employees and is engaged in the hiring and firing of subordinates or recommends the hiring and firing of subordinates as well as other personnel actions.

Foreign position primarily executive:

- A letter from an authorized representative of the foreign entity describing the beneficiary's executive position abroad. The letter should describe the beneficiary's typical executive duties, and the percentage of time spent on each. In addition, the letter should address:
  - How the beneficiary directed the management of the organization, or a major component or function of the organization;
  - How the beneficiary established the goals and policies of the organization, component, or function;
  - How the beneficiary exercised wide latitude in discretionary decision-making; and
  - Whether the beneficiary received only general supervision or direction from higher level executives, the board of directors, or stockholders.

Foreign position involved specialized knowledge:

- A letter from an authorized representative of the foreign entity describing the specialized knowledge duties of the position abroad. The letter should also describe the percentage of time spent on each duty. In addition, the letter should:
  - Identify which of the petitioning organization's products, services, tools, research, equipment, techniques, management, or processes and procedures involved in the beneficiary's job duties required specialized knowledge;
  - Explain how the knowledge or expertise identified was either "special" or "advanced";
  - State the minimum time required to obtain this knowledge, including training and actual experience accrued after the completion of training; and
  - If your organization is seeking to establish that the beneficiary's foreign position involved "advanced" knowledge, explain the knowledge that is required to perform the duties of the foreign position and how it compares to that of similarly employed individuals within the employer and within the industry.

- If your organization is seeking to establish that the beneficiary's foreign position involved "specialized" knowledge, explain the knowledge that is required to perform the duties of the foreign position and how it pertains to the foreign entity's product, service, research, equipment, techniques, management, or other interests and its application in international markets that is distinct or uncommon in comparison to that generally found in the particular industry.
- Additional documentary evidence to support the claims made in your letter and to show the knowledge involved in performing the duties of the beneficiary's foreign position was special and/or advanced.

Beneficiary's Qualifications: Your organization must establish that the beneficiary's prior education, training, and employment qualify him or her to perform the intended services in the United States. However, the work in the United States need not be the same work which the beneficiary performed abroad.

Your organization did not submit any evidence for this requirement. Your organization may still submit evidence to satisfy this requirement.

Evidence may include, but is not limited to:

- A letter from an authorized representative of the foreign entity describing the beneficiary's employment. The letter should contain:
  - The beneficiary's position title abroad and a description of all of the beneficiary's duties for the foreign employer;
  - An outline of all of the beneficiary's positions while employed with the foreign entity;
  - Position descriptions and employment dates at any other affiliated companies abroad where the beneficiary worked; and
  - An explanation of how the beneficiary's prior education, training, and employment qualify him or her to perform the intended services in the United States, even if the work performed abroad is not the same as that which will be performed in the United States.
- Copies of the beneficiary's educational transcripts.
- Other documentary evidence that shows how the beneficiary's prior education, training, and employment qualify him or her to perform the intended services in the United States, even if the work performed abroad is not the same as that which will be performed in the United States.

Managerial or Executive Position in the United States: The proposed position in the United States must be primarily managerial or executive. Your organization must show that the position in the United States is primarily in a managerial or executive capacity.

To satisfy this requirement, your organization submitted:

- Your letter of support, dated February 3, 2022; organizational chart.

The evidence your organization submitted is insufficient. You provided a description of the beneficiary's duties that includes the percentage of time the beneficiary will spend performing the duties. However, the submitted description of the beneficiary's U.S. position describes generalized duties and responsibilities. Therefore, USCIS cannot determine whether the beneficiary primarily performs managerial duties or routine operational tasks. Consequently, without additional details and documentation concerning the beneficiary's managerial duties at the U.S. entity, including how, and at what frequency the stated duties will be performed, USCIS cannot determine that the beneficiary will be employed in a primarily managerial capacity.

In addition, you indicate that the beneficiary is employed in a managerial capacity as a "Director of Engineering." In support of the petition you submitted an organizational chart to illustrate the beneficiary's position and the number and types of employees. The organizational chart you submitted suggest that the beneficiary oversees five (5) subordinate employees. However, you did not provide a description of duties for the beneficiary's subordinate staff and describe how the subordinate staff supports the beneficiary's managerial position and relieves him from primarily performing the day-to-day, non-qualifying duties of the business. As such, the evidence you submitted does not establish that the beneficiary supervises and controls the work of other supervisory, professional, or managerial employees.

Furthermore, you suggest that the beneficiary "exercises the authority to hire, fire, and recommend personnel actions for his reports" and "is responsible for disciplining, promoting, scheduling, and approving time off." However, you did not submit documentary evidence to support your assertions. As such, the evidence you submitted does not establish that the beneficiary has the authority to hire and fire or recommend personnel actions. In addition, the evidence submitted is not sufficient to show that your company currently employs a subordinate staff that will relieve the beneficiary from primarily performing the day-to-day, non-qualifying duties of the business. Moreover, the evidence you submitted does not demonstrate that the beneficiary manages the organization, department, subdivision, function, or component of the organization he or she oversees.

As such, you have not established that the U.S. business has an organizational structure sufficient to elevate the beneficiary to a position that is primarily managerial. Without more detailed information accompanied by credible probative material documentation that demonstrates and supports your claims of managerial capacity, USCIS cannot determine that the beneficiary is employed in a primarily managerial capacity. Your organization may still submit evidence to satisfy this requirement.

Evidence may include, but is not limited to:

United States position primarily managerial:

- A letter from an authorized representative of the U.S. entity describing how the beneficiary will be employed in a managerial position. The letter should describe the beneficiary's typical managerial duties, and the percentage of time to be spent on each. In addition, the letter should address:
  - How the beneficiary will manage the organization, department, subdivision, function, or component of the organization.
  - How the beneficiary will supervise and control the work of other supervisory, professional, or managerial employees, or manage an essential function, department, or subdivision of the organization.
  - Whether the beneficiary will have authority to hire and fire, or recommend similar personnel actions (such as promotion and leave authorization) if other employees will be directly supervised (or if no employees will be directly supervised, how the beneficiary will function at a senior level within the organizational hierarchy or with respect to the managed function).
  - How the beneficiary will make decisions on daily operations of the activity or function under his or her authority.
  - If the beneficiary will be a first-line supervisor, submit evidence showing the supervised employees will be professionals.

Note: A professional is an individual who is a member of the professions, which includes but is not limited to architects, engineers, lawyers, physicians, surgeons, and teachers in elementary or secondary schools, colleges, academies, or seminaries.

- If the beneficiary will manage a function, explain and provide documentary evidence to establish that the specific function is critical or essential to the U.S. entity and that the beneficiary will hold a high-level position within the U.S. entity, or in a position directly related to a function necessary for the provision of an end product or service of the company. Your explanation should identify the function with specificity and describe the critical or essential nature of the function and how it relates to the provision of such end product or service. In addition, provide a detailed description of the percentage of time the beneficiary will spend performing such duties to demonstrate that the beneficiary primarily manages the function rather than primarily performing the non-qualifying day-to-day duties of the function.
- Copies of performance appraisals or reviews conducted by the beneficiary for any subordinate employees or any evidence that demonstrates the beneficiary has sufficient managerial authority over subordinate employees and is engaged in the hiring and firing of subordinates or recommends these and other personnel actions.
- An organizational chart or diagram, showing the U.S. entity's organizational structure and staffing levels. The chart or diagram should list all employees in the beneficiary's immediate division, department, or team by name, job title, summary of duties, education level, and salary. It should also clearly identify the beneficiary's position in the chart.
- Copies of the U.S. entity's State Quarterly Wage Reports for the 3rd quarter of 2021 that were accepted by the State of GA. The forms should include the names, salaries, and number of weeks worked for all employees under the beneficiary's direction.
  - Note: If employees listed on the organizational chart are not listed on the State Quarterly Wage Reports, explain why. If your organization chooses to submit wage reports, they should contain sufficient information to show that the beneficiary has been or will be employed in a managerial capacity.
- Copies of the U.S. entity's payroll summary, and Forms W-2, W-3, and 1099-MISC showing wages paid to all employees under the beneficiary's direction.
- Copies of employment agreements entered into by newly hired employees who will be managed by the beneficiary.

United States position primarily executive:

- A letter from an authorized representative of the U.S. entity describing how the beneficiary will be employed in an executive position. The letter should describe the beneficiary's typical executive duties, and the percentage of time to be spent on each. In addition, the letter should address:
  - How the beneficiary will direct the management of the organization, or a major component or function of the organization;
  - How the beneficiary will establish the goals and policies of the organization, component, or function;
  - How the beneficiary will exercise wide latitude in discretionary decision-making; and
  - Whether the beneficiary will receive only general supervision or direction from higher level executives, the board of directors, or stockholders.
- An organizational chart or diagram, showing the U.S. entity's organizational structure and staffing levels. The chart or diagram should list all employees in the beneficiary's immediate division, department, or team by name, job title, summary of duties, education level, and salary. It should also clearly identify the beneficiary's position in the chart.

- Copies of the U.S. entity's State Quarterly Wage Reports for the 3rd quarter of 2021 that were accepted by the State of GA. The forms should include the names, salaries, and number of weeks worked for all employees.
  - Note: If employees listed on the organizational chart are not listed on the State Quarterly Wage Reports, explain why. If your organization chooses to submit wage reports, they should contain sufficient information to show that the beneficiary has been or will be employed in an executive capacity.
- Copies of the U.S. entity's payroll summary, and Forms W-2, W-3, and 1099-MISC showing wages paid to all employees under the beneficiary's direction.
- Copies of employment agreements entered into by newly hired employees who will be managed by the beneficiary.

General Reminders: If your organization is submitting evidence in response to this request, in order for us to properly evaluate such evidence, we recommend that you submit the following:

- An index of the evidence and include corresponding tabs for each section of evidence.
- Clear and legible copies of the evidence. If clear and legible copies are not possible, submit the original documents. These originals will be returned, if requested.
- Duplicate copy if your organization is requesting consulate notification. Your organization should provide a duplicate copy of: Your petition and initial evidence (if not previously provided); and any evidence submitted in response to this request. If the beneficiary is in the United States and your organization is requesting a change of status or extension, your organization may also choose to submit a duplicate copy of your petition and supporting evidence in case the beneficiary decides to seek a visa at a consular office abroad.
- Full English language translation(s) of evidence submitted to USCIS containing a foreign language. The translator must certify that the translations are accurate and complete and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English.

Combination Employment Authorization
and Advance Parole Request

DECISION

Now that you have become a Permanent Resident of the United States we would like to welcome you and congratulate you. You should have received, or will soon receive, your approval notice followed by either your Permanent Resident Card, Form I-551, or instructions on when and where to go to have your biometrics (photograph, fingerprint and signature) taken so that we can produce your I-551.

Title 8 Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR) § 103.2(b)(1) states, in pertinent part:

Demonstrating eligibility. An applicant or petitioner must establish that he or she is eligible for the requested benefit at the time of filing the benefit request and must continue to be eligible through adjudication.

8 CFR § 274a.12(c)(9) allows for granting employment authorization to:

An alien who has filed an application for adjustment of status to lawful permanent resident pursuant to Part 245 of this chapter ....while his or her properly filed Form I-485 application is pending final adjudication...

8 CFR 223.2(a) states in pertinent part:

Application. An applicant must submit an application for a reentry permit, refugee travel document, or advance parole on the form designated by USCIS with the fee prescribed in 8 CFR 103.7(b)(1) and in accordance with the form instructions.

Part 3a.(1) of the Form I-131 instructions state:

- a. If you are in the United States and seek an Advance Parole Document, you may apply if:

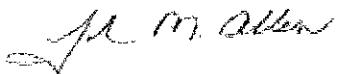

(1) You have a pending application to adjust status, Form I-485, and you seek to travel abroad temporarily for “urgent humanitarian reasons” or in furtherance of a “significant public benefit,” which may include a personal or family emergency or bona fide business reasons.

As a Permanent Resident, you can travel to a foreign country and freely reenter the United States. All that you will normally need is a Permanent Resident Card and a passport from your country of citizenship. You do not need an advance parole travel document to reenter the United States. Also, as a Permanent Resident, you may be employed in the United States at any legal work of your choosing. The Permanent Resident Card may be used to prove employment eligibility when you start new employment. You do not need an employment authorization document to prove employment eligibility in the United States. Consequently, the Application for Travel Document and the Application for Employment Authorization that you had filed no longer serve a purpose and, as such, have been denied.

There is no appeal from this decision. You may file a motion to reopen or reconsider. Your motion to reopen or reconsider must be filed on Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, within 30 days of the date of this notice (33 days if this notice is received by mail). For the latest information on filing location, fee, and other requirements, please review the Form I-290B instructions provided at <http://www.uscis.gov/forms>, call our USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283, or visit your local USCIS office. If USCIS does not receive a properly filed motion, this decision will become final.

This decision does not prevent you from filing any petition or application in the future. Again, congratulations on your accomplishment of becoming a Permanent Resident of the United States.

Sincerely,

John M. Allen
Director, Texas Service Center
Officer: XM1865

The above petition has been approved. The petition indicates that the person for whom you are petitioning is in the United States and will apply for adjustment of status. The information submitted with the petition shows that the person for whom you are petitioning is not eligible to file an adjustment of status application at this time.

Additional information about eligibility for adjustment of status may be obtained from the local USCIS office serving the area where the person for whom you are petitioning lives.

Until the person for whom you are petitioning files an adjustment application, or application for an immigrant visa, this approved petition will be stored in this office. If the person for whom you are petitioning decides to apply for an immigrant visa outside the United States based on this petition, the petitioner should file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, to request that we send the petition to the Department of State National Visa Center (NVC).

The NVC processes all approved immigrant visa petitions that require consular action. The NVC also determines which consular post is the appropriate consulate to complete visa processing. It will then forward the approved petition to that consulate.

The approval of this visa petition does not in itself grant any immigration status and does not guarantee that the alien beneficiary will subsequently be found to be eligible for a visa, for admission to the United States, or for an extension, change, or adjustment of status.

THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA AND MAY NOT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

The Small Business Regulatory Enforcement and Fairness Act established the Office of the National Ombudsman (ONO) at the Small Business Administration. NOTICE: Although this application or petition has been approved, USCIS and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security reserve the right to verify this information before and/or after making a decision on your case so we can ensure that you have complied with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and other legal authorities. We may review public information and records, contact others by mail, the internet or phone, conduct site inspections of businesses and residences, or use other methods of verification. RE: EWE JIUN CHNG
I-140, Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker

REQUEST FOR EVIDENCE

**PREMIUM PROCESSING****

IMPORTANT: THIS NOTICE CONTAINS YOUR UNIQUE NUMBER. THE ORIGINAL NOTICE MUST BE SUBMITTED WITH THE REQUESTED EVIDENCE.

You are receiving this notice because U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) requires additional evidence to process your form. Please provide the evidence listed on the attached page(s). Include duplicate copies if you are requesting consular notification.

Your response must be received in this office by July 11, 2022.

Please note that you have been allotted the maximum period allowed for responding to an RFE. The time period for responding cannot be extended. 8 Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR) 103.2(b)(8)(iv). Because many immigration benefits are time sensitive, you are encouraged to respond to this request as early as possible, but no later than the deadline provided above. If you do not respond to this notice within the allotted time, your case may be denied. The regulations do not provide for an extension of time to submit the requested evidence.

You must submit all requested evidence at the same time. If you submit only some of the requested evidence, USCIS will consider your response a request for a decision on the record. See 8 CFR 103.2(b)(11).

If you submit a document in any language other than English, the document must be accompanied by a full and complete English translation. The translator must certify that the translation is accurate and he or she is competent to translate from that language to English. If you submit a foreign language translation in response to this request for evidence, you must also include a copy of the foreign language document.

Processing of your I-140 will resume upon receipt of your response. If you have not heard from USCIS within 20 days of responding, you may contact the USCIS Contact Center at 1-866-315-5718. If you are hearing impaired, please call the USCIS Contact Center TDD at 1-800-767-1833.

You, FedEx Corporate Services, Inc (the petitioner), filed an Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker (Form I-140) on April 6, 2022. On Form I-140, you listed that you seek to classify Ewe Jiun Chng(the beneficiary) as a member of the professions holding an advanced degree who is not seeking to waive the job offer requirement in the national interest. The priority date for this petition is September 2, 2021.

The labor certification requires a master's degree and 24 months of experience or a doctorate and 0 experience. The record indicates that the beneficiary was granted a master's degree in 2018. There is a letter from FedEx Corporate Services, Inc verifying the beneficiary's employment as a Senior Pricing Analyst from July 1, 2018, until March 19, 2020. This does not fulfill the 24 month experience needed and the record does not contain any other verified employment history. Therefore, please submit evidence to establish that the beneficiary meets these requirements as of the priority date.

This evidence should consist of a copy of letter(s) from current or former employer(s). The letters of experience, preferably on the employer's official letterhead, must list the writer's name, address, and title, and a specific description of the beneficiary's duties. The letter should also include the beneficiary's dates of employment.

PLACE THIS LETTER ON TOP OF YOUR RESPONSE. SUBMISSION OF EVIDENCE WITHOUT THIS LETTER WILL DELAY PROCESSING OF YOUR CASE AND MAY RESULT IN A DENIAL. PLEASE USE THE ENCLOSED ENVELOPE TO MAIL ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE REQUEST BACK TO THIS OFFICE.

When you mail your response to this Office, please mark the envelope with a blue stripe on the end and write PREMIUM RFE on the envelope and mail to:

NEBRASKA SERVICE CENTER
P.O. BOX 87103
LINCOLN, NE 68501-7103

If you choose to mail your response by courier to the Center's physical address, please write Premium Processing, P.O. Box 87103 on both sides of the envelope.

Sincerely,

L. Miller
Director
Officer: 0628

You must wait for that separate appointment notice and take it (NOT this receipt notice) to your ASC appointment along with your photo identification.

Acceptable kinds of photo identification are:

(For example: If you wish to obtain your mother's birth certificate and your parents' marriage certificate, both of which are in the USCIS file that pertains to her, submit one Form G-884 with your mother's information.)

NOTICE: Under the INA, the information you provide on and in support of applications and petitions is submitted under the penalty of perjury. Notice Type: Approval Notice

Class: C09P

Valid from 01/12/2022 to 01/11/2024

We have approved your application for employment authorization and advance parole based on your pending Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. We will send your Employment Authorization Document (also known as an EAD card or Form I-766) to you separately. The EAD card will have an I-512 endorsement on it, which indicates that you have been approved for advance parole.

Your EAD card is proof that you are allowed to work in the United States. Show the card to your employer to verify your authorization to work during the dates on the card. You cannot use this approval notice as proof of your employment authorization.

When you receive your EAD card, please check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please mail all of the following to the office listed below:

- A letter explaining what information needs to be corrected,
- Your EAD card,
- A photocopy of this notice, and
- Evidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate or official name change.

If the I-765 was approved for you as a student requesting Optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your EAD and your OPT employment authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States without authorization may result in your removal from the United States or denial of re-entry, and remaining in the United States without maintaining status may result in accruing unlawful presence. Consult your Designated School Official for additional details.

Advanced Parole

The I-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form I-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form I-485.

Show your unexpired EAD card with the I-512 endorsement to the ship or airline, and it can let you on board to travel to the United States. As long as your EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request parole into the United States. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) can parole you into the U.S. for up to one (1) year.

Before you leave the United States, please note the following information:

- Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States according to the terms of this advance parole. Even though USCIS approved your advance parole, CBP may still refuse to parole you into the United States.
- Parole into the United States is not an "admission" into the U.S. If we deny your Form I-485, you may be subject to removal proceedings for being inadmissible to the U.S.
- Unlawful Presence. If you leave the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States, you may be barred from admission even if you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year and you leave the U.S. voluntarily before the start of removal proceedings, you are inadmissible for three years; if you were unlawfully present for one year or more, you are inadmissible for ten years.

If you have concerns about how traveling abroad with your EAD card may affect your legal rights, admissibility, or waivers, you should contact an immigration attorney or an immigrant assistance organization accredited by the Board of Immigration Appeals before making foreign travel plans.

If You Have a Pending Form I-485

RE: PETER MARK HALPIN
I-765, Application for Employment Authorization

SRC2190179013
A219422842

Combination Employment Authorization
and Advance Parole Request

DECISION

Now that you have become a Permanent Resident of the United States we would like to welcome you and congratulate you. You should have received, or will soon receive, your approval notice followed by either your Permanent Resident Card, Form I-551, or instructions on when and where to go to have your biometrics (photograph, fingerprint and signature) taken so that we can produce your I-551.

Title 8 Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR) § 103.2(b)(1) states, in pertinent part:

Demonstrating eligibility. An applicant or petitioner must establish that he or she is eligible for the requested benefit at the time of filing the benefit request and must continue to be eligible through adjudication.

8 CFR § 274a.12(c)(9) allows for granting employment authorization to:

An alien who has filed an application for adjustment of status to lawful permanent resident pursuant to Part 245 of this chapter ....while his or her properly filed Form I-485 application is pending final adjudication...

8 CFR 223.2(a) states in pertinent part:

Application. An applicant must submit an application for a reentry permit, refugee travel document, or advance parole on the form designated by USCIS with the fee prescribed in 8 CFR 103.7(b)(1) and in accordance with the form instructions.

Part 3a.(1) of the Form I-131 instructions state:

- a. If you are in the United States and seek an Advance Parole Document, you may apply if:

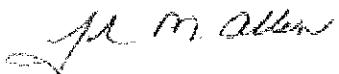

(1) You have a pending application to adjust status, Form I-485, and you seek to travel abroad temporarily for “urgent humanitarian reasons” or in furtherance of a “significant public benefit,” which may include a personal or family emergency or bona fide business reasons.

As a Permanent Resident, you can travel to a foreign country and freely reenter the United States. All that you will normally need is a Permanent Resident Card and a passport from your country of citizenship. You do not need an advance parole travel document to reenter the United States. Also, as a Permanent Resident, you may be employed in the United States at any legal work of your choosing. The Permanent Resident Card may be used to prove employment eligibility when you start new employment. You do not need an employment authorization document to prove employment eligibility in the United States. Consequently, the Application for Travel Document and the Application for Employment Authorization that you had filed no longer serve a purpose and, as such, have been denied.

There is no appeal from this decision. You may file a motion to reopen or reconsider. Your motion to reopen or reconsider must be filed on Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, within 30 days of the date of this notice (33 days if this notice is received by mail). For the latest information on filing location, fee, and other requirements, please review the Form I-290B instructions provided at <http://www.uscis.gov/forms>, call our USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283, or visit your local USCIS office. If USCIS does not receive a properly filed motion, this decision will become final.

This decision does not prevent you from filing any petition or application in the future. Again, congratulations on your accomplishment of becoming a Permanent Resident of the United States.

Sincerely,

John M. Allen
Director, Texas Service Center
Officer: XM1865

We have received the application or petition ("your case") listed above. This notice only shows that your case was filed on the "Received Date" listed above. It does NOT grant you any immigration status or immigration benefit, and it is not evidence that your case is still pending. We will notify you in writing when we make a decision on your case or if we need additional information.

Please save this and any other notices about your case for your records. You should also keep copies of anything you send us, as well as proof of delivery. Have these records available when you contact us about your case.

If any of the information in your notice is incorrect or you have any questions about your case, you can connect with the USCIS Contact Center at www.uscis.gov/contactcenter or ask about your case online at www.uscis.gov/e-request. You will need your Alien Registration Number (A-Number) and/or the receipt number shown above.

Automatic 180 day Employment Authorization Document (EAD) Extension - This notice, by itself, does not grant any immigration status or benefit, nor is it evidence that this case is still pending. However, if:

- You have timely filed to renew your current Form I-766 EAD; and
- Your EAD renewal is under a category that is eligible for an automatic 180 day extension (see www.uscis.gov/I-765 for a list of categories); and
- The category on your current EAD matches the "Class Requested" listed on this Notice of Action (Note: If you are a Temporary Protected Status beneficiary or applicant, your EAD and this Notice must contain either the A12 or C19 class, but they do not need to match each other.) and
- You do not receive your renewal EAD before your current EAD expires;
- Then this Notice of Action automatically extends the validity of your EAD for up to 180 days from the expiration date printed on the face of the card. If all of the above conditions apply with respect to your EAD renewal application, you may present this Notice of Action with your expired EAD to your employer for employment eligibility verification (Form I-9) purposes. If your renewal application is denied, the automatic extension immediately terminates, and you may not provide this Notice of Action with your expired EAD for Form I-9 purposes. If your EAD is a combo card, the automatic extension does not apply to advance parole. For more information, please visit our website at <https://www.uscis.gov/working-in-the-united-states/information-for-employers-and-employees/automatic-employment-authorization-document-ead-extension>.
- Applicants for A17, A18 EAD renewal and C26 employment authorization and EAD renewal must show this receipt notice, an unexpired I-94 showing valid E, L, or H-4 spouse status, and an expired A17, A18 or C26 EAD that matches this receipt notice, to demonstrate employment authorization during the auto-extension period. The EAD auto-extension terminates the earlier of: the end date on the I-94, the adjudication of this application, or 180 days after the expiration date on the EAD.

This notice, by itself, does not grant any immigration status or benefit, nor is it evidence that this case is still pending. However, this Notice of Action automatically extends the validity of your Employment Authorization Document (EAD) for up to 180 days from the expiration date printed on the front of the card and can be used for employment eligibility verification (Form I-9) purposes if:

- You have timely filed to renew your current Form I-766, Employment Authorization Document (EAD);
- Your EAD renewal is under a category that is eligible for an automatic 180-day extension (see uscis.gov/i-765 for a list of categories);
- The category on your current EAD matches the “Class Requested” listed on this notice (if you are a TPS beneficiary or applicant, your EAD and this notice must contain either the A12 or C19 category, but they do not need to match each other); and
- You do not receive your renewal EAD before your current EAD expires.

If we deny your renewal application, the automatic extension immediately ends and cannot be used for Form I-9 purposes. If your EAD is a combo card, the automatic extension does not apply to advance parole.

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY
U.S. CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION SERVICES

Receipt Number WAC2211750596		Case Type I129 - PETITION FOR A NONIMMIGRANT WORKER
Received Date 01/28/2022	Priority Date	Petitioner SIX CONTINENTS HOTELS INC INTERCON,
Notice Date 04/11/2022	Page 1 of 2	Beneficiary VILLAREJO CARRION, MARIA PIEDAD
CONSTANGY BROOKS SMITH & PROPHETE c/o JENNIFER YEAW P O BOX 98869 RALEIGH NC 27624		Notice Type: Approval Notice  Class: L1A  Valid from 02/06/2022 to 02/05/2024

The above petition and accompanying request for an extension of stay have been approved. The status of the named beneficiary(ies) in this classification is valid as indicated on the I-94 attached below. The beneficiary(ies) can work for the petitioner pursuant to this approval notice, but only as detailed in the petition and during the petition validity period indicated above, unless otherwise authorized by law. Changes in employment or training may require you to file a new Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker.

The dates in the I-94 attached below might not be for the same dates as the petition validity dates above because the I-94 below may contain a grace period of up to 10 days before and up to 10 days after the petition validity period for the following classifications: CW-1, E-1, E-2, E-3, H-1B, H-2B, H-3, L-1A, L-1B, O-1, O-2, P-1, P-1S, P-2, P-2S, P-3, P-3S, TN-1, and TN-2. An I-94 for H-2A nonimmigrants may contain a grace period of up to one week before and 30 days after the petition validity period. However, the beneficiary(ies) may not work during such grace periods, unless otherwise authorized by law. The decision to grant a grace period and the length of the granted grace period is discretionary, final, and cannot be contested on motion or appeal. Please contact the IRS with any questions about tax withholding.

The petitioner should keep the upper portion of this notice. The lower portion should be given to the beneficiary(ies). The beneficiary(ies) should keep the right part (the I-94 portion) with his or her other Forms I-94, Arrival-Departure Record. The I-94 portion should be given to the U.S. Customs and Border Protection when he or she leaves the United States. The left part is for his or her records. A person granted a extension of stay who leaves the U.S. and is not visa-exempt must normally obtain a new visa before returning. The left part can be used when applying for the new visa. If a visa is not required, he or she should present it, along with any other required documentation, when applying for reentry based on this approval notice at a port of entry or pre-flight inspection station. The petitioner may also file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, to request that we notify a consulate, port of entry, or pre-flight inspection office of this approval.

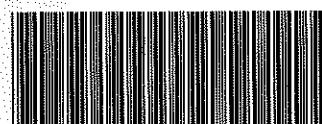

The approval of this petition does not guarantee that the beneficiary(ies) will be found to be eligible for a visa, for admission to the United States (if traveling abroad and seeking re-admission), or for a subsequent extension of stay, change of status, or adjustment of status.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

If we find any derogatory information, we will follow the law in determining whether to provide you (and the legal representative listed on your Form G-28, if you submitted one) an opportunity to address that information before we make a formal decision on your case or start proceedings.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.
